1. DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION POLICY

Developing human capital based on merit, professional skills, proper conduct, honesty and trust, while fostering an inclusive work environment that is open to diversity is the foundation on which ASTM has built its personnel policies.

1.1. Purpose

Everyone is unique and diverse with their own personality, history and skills.

ASTM S.p.A. (“ASTM” or the “Company”) recognises that its employees’ diversity plays a part in its success and works to enhance their experiences, abilities and qualities every day.

Diversity includes all the differences that make people unique.

ASTM believes that diversity, in all its manifestations, represents a strategic advantage as it leads to cultural openness and enrichment, fostering an inclusive work environment centred around teamwork and creativity. The value of diversity is conveyed within the company by encouraging every person to freely express themselves so that they are able to achieve their potential and increase their motivation.

At ASTM, everyone can achieve their ambitions in line with the ambitions of the Company.

Along with the Code of Ethics, the Diversity and Inclusion Policy applies to all Company employees, collaborators, candidates in the selection phase, contractors and suppliers. Furthermore, anyone who carries out activities for ASTM undertakes to comply with all applicable laws and regulations currently in force.

Discrimination in any form, based on ethnicity, race, skin colour, gender, sexual orientation, religion, nationality, age, political opinion, trade union membership, marital status, health status or any other social status or personal characteristic, is not tolerated. Therefore, the Company:

- Strives to create a work environment that is free from any form of direct or indirect discrimination, whether collective or individual, or any type of violence or harassment, including sexual harassment and harassment based on personal, political or cultural diversity.
- It aims to promote an inclusive culture based on mutual respect that engages all personnel and offers them the opportunity to develop their talent.
- It adheres to a personnel selection policy that aims to recognise merit, in compliance with equal opportunity principles. This policy is applied by conducting a transparent assessment of skills and competencies. Any career opportunity or professional advancement will be handled without any kind of discrimination and while respecting diversity.
- It is also committed to training and promoting personnel, improving the professional development of its resources, inspiring all employees to achieve their full potential and supporting the sharing of best practices across the entire organisation.
- It seeks to ensure that all its employees and collaborators treat others with dignity, respect and fairness at all times and that they demonstrate conduct that reflects inclusion and supports the values of the Company.

ASTM aims to ensure that it can effectively utilise the skills of all its employees by drawing on their diverse range of talents, aware that people with different experiences and competences can create value.

ASTM is committed to complying fully with all diversity and inclusion regulations, as well as the best practices of the countries in which the Company works.
